

How to get to Us

On foot, from Richmond Station

By Rail, to Richmond Station

Overground from London Waterloo Station. Approximate journey time from Waterloo is 20 - 30 minutes. Or by Silver Link round north London, from Hampstead via Willesden Junction to Richmond.

By London Underground, to Richmond Station

District Line (via Hammersmith). Approximate journey time from Hammersmith is 15 minutes.

By Bus

Richmond Bus Station is in Wakefield Road, a 2 minute walk to Goodwin House.

By Car

Car parking available as indicated. The nearest car park is the one on Paradise Road, which can only be approached from the A305 and not from Eton Street. When you come out from the car park, on the opposite side of the road and to your right you'll see a small passage down the side of Hogarth House. If you follow this path for 100m it will lead you into Union Court. Goodwin House is the large building on the left with a copper dome roof over the main entrance.
